COLFAX COUNTY, NEBRASKA

(It) lies to the middle east of the state. It has 10,420 inhabitants. Schuyler, where a great number of Czechs are found, is the county seat. The topography around the North Platte River are sandy valleys, but most part of the soil is fertile, then again only good for hay. Further north, the land is hilly (chain of hills) but in the valley, the soil on the whole is productive. Near the county border in the north, lies the town of Clarkson, where a great number of Czechs are settled, farther east is the town of Howells, again a great number of Czechs.

The first settlers in the county arrived approximately in the year 1869, they were the families Folda, Lodi, Sobota and Dvorak, and later more and more arrived and became a large Czech settlement. Later in the settlement in Schuyler, a Czech newspaper was established called 'Nova Doba' (New Times). The originator who wrote under the name of 'Kotvou' and still writes under this name and is in the second year of publication.

In the lodges of the county is the Lodge Zap. Jednota (Western Union) in Schuyler and Zap. Svornost (Western Concord) in Clarkson of C.S.P.S. Other Czech-American Lodges were established in Schuyler, Howells, Clarkson such as Modern Woodmen and Odd Fellows. Catholic Lodges are few about three, but do have a good number of members. Near the Catholic Church in Tabor a Catholic hall was built for the lodge meetings and other social events. In all of the county, the Czech Catholic church embraces the Irish in Schuyler, the Czechs in Dry Creek, and in Tabor, and a number of Germans at Heun. The Czech Catholic priest, Father Jan Hodyc lives in the town of Howells, then on the land of Mr. Mrazka in the Wilson precinct.

On the whole, the Czechs are well established. There are two Czech schools in the county. The head of the Lodge C.S.P.S. maintains the one in Schuyler, the teacher was Mr. A.Z. Donato and Mr. B. Ningrem taught the children and others in the Sokol athletic organization. Mr. A. Odvarka taught the school in Clarkson with great success.

Already the arrangement (dissatisfaction) of the region council in the town and county offices, and because it is not an election campaign, that a considerable part of the county is trying to obtain an election. With honored Mr. M.F. Bednar, who is the county treasurer, is trying to reach from the past election, to restore the entire council office and town office by his hand. I do not believe it myself and find it impossible.

Furthermore, because of an error from the land statement, I myself found it was due to the fault of the county clerk as he disallowed me to survey county books and it is possible there are errors in information and they are not correct or complete.

Because of large industry competition, it is necessary for those with Czech names to mill flour at Howells, and only a portion of remaining Czechs have property for other competitors.
