PAWNEE COUNTY, NEBRASKA

(Pawnee County) is the second county west of the Missouri River near the Kansas border. Pawnee City is the county seat. Topography is mostly rolling. Soil is good. In the vicinity of creeks and the river is enough trees for heating and other domestic uses. Czech settlers of this place created entire settlements in Richardson County. The history is the same, since the greater part of the settlers of both settlements are bonded by kinsman in one entire community.
