SALINE COUNTY, NEBRASKA

(Saline Co.) lies in the middle of the southeastern part of the state. It has 19,829 inhabitants. Wilber is the county seat. Topography is rolling prairie, with wide valleys along the Big Blue River. The more fertile soil is in the northeast corner close to Seward County and around Swan Creek. The soil is productive with corn as the main crop. Czechs started to settle here in 1865. The first being Mr. Anton Krten, Mr. Vac Sestak, Brothers Kovarik, Mr. Fr. Jelinek and others. There was no railroad here. The hardships the early settlers endured can't be imagined. As an example, Miss Jana Simon, (now of Wichita, Kansas) was living in the home of Fr. Krten, she became ill and lay for 13 weeks without medical help. There was no doctor or drugs available, the distance for help was far, no transportation, no wagon and no money. In 1870 the town of Crete was founded on the newly built B. & M. Railroad. Now more people arrived and settled around. In the year 1873, Wilber was founded. Not long after Jos. Novinsky put out a weekly publication called 'Beseda' (the Circle). The oldest Czech lodge in the county was Telovicna Jednota Sokol (Athletic) in Crete. Others were Jed. Sokol in Wilber, Jed. Sokol in Brush Creek. Jednota C.S.P.S. has two lodges-- Svojan in Wilber and Nebraska in Crete. The Catholic lodges are St. Vaclav in Wilber and St. Joseph in Crete. There are two Czech Catholic Churches in the County. Farmers formed their own organization insurance against fire, lightning, and other calamities. There was no protection for the early settlers. So a plan was formed to insure crop land, homes, green crops, corn etc. As of this time, there are 817 families comprising or owning 89,526 acres of land plus 4,980 acres in surrounding counties. At this time, numerous Czechs in the vicinity of the Big Blue River and now a whole colony which includes part of Lancaster (minus Lincoln) part of Seward, Fillmore, and part of Gage with Wilber, reads and combined with Saline as 1081 settlers owning 110,726 acres of land without measuring fractions. Now I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to all my countrymen for all the news and information you have extended to me. Without your help, my job would be tremendous and with your help you have enlightened my work. If you will allow me to say that after reading this article and you find errors or misinformation, you will forgive me and not think ill of me. Since much is endeavored, 'maybe' either through ignorance or envy, and according to opinions of numerous countrymen, my payment for work, thereof, is enormous!
